

Switch to Novell NetWare...

...and take home a soft, snuggly puppy!

Novell invites you bring a soft, snuggly puppy into your home. All you have to do is make the switch to NetWare. Trade in a competing network operating system toward the purchase an enterprise server license. Then select your puppy from our special selection of Armenian semi-castrated pitt-bulls. Multiple puppies awarded for multi-year licenses. Guaranteed not to bite, mostly.
